

Keep Your Pets Safe & Healthy this Thanksgiving

To prevent a trip to the vet ER and to keep you pet safe, healthy and Happy during Thanks- giving, simply say “No” to the following:

- 1). Turkey, duck, goose, pork, ham or beef bones
- 2). Stuffing made with onions
- 3). Rich gravy
- 4). Fatty scraps
- 5). Egg nog
- 6). Alcoholic beverages
- 7). Garlic mashed potatoes
- 8). Fruitcake
- 9). Desserts
- 10). Chocolate
- 11). Grapes or raisins
- 12). Aluminum foil or candy wrappers
- 13). Candy or ice cream
- 14) Lit candles, glass ornaments or other table decorations such as toothpicks or skewers that your pet can get hold of and ingest
- 15). Coffee or hot chocolate, rum or brandy “toddlies”, etc.
- 16). Decorative plants like poinsettias or Xmas trees with pine needles
- 17). Herbs such as sage, rosemary or thyme

Have a safe and happy Thanksgiving! Stick to your pet's dietary and exercise routine as much as possible. You are not doing him a favor by giving him rich or unusual treats with which he is not familiar!